Scheme of Delegation

Introduction

An academy trust's board of trustees is accountable in law for all decisions about its academy. However, this does not mean that the full board is required to make all the decisions itself. Many decisions can be delegated to the head teacher, the board, sub-committees and individual trustees (Directors). It is vital that the decision to delegate a function is made by the full board and is recorded. Without such formal delegation, the individual or committee has no power to act.

Once determined the scheme of delegation must be published on the trust's website.

The purpose of scheme of delegation

A scheme of delegation (SoD) is the key document defining which functions have been delegated and to whom. It should be a simple yet systematic way of ensuring members, trustees, committees and individuals are clear about who has responsibility for making which decisions in the trust. This overarching SoD covering all decision making in the trust should not be confused with the written scheme of delegation of financial powers referred to in the Academies Financial Handbook.

Deciding what to retain at trustee level and what to delegate will vary from trust to trust. The detail will not be set out in the articles of association, the academy trusts governing document. This is why it is critical that the academy trust agree a SoD that explicitly establishes who makes which decisions, and ensures this is clear to all. A detailed yet clear SoD can help prevent confusion from arising before any misunderstanding arises which has the propensity to lead to a loss of trust and damaged working relationships.

Format, structure and clarity

While schemes will vary from trust to trust depending on whether they are a single academy trust, a small Multi-academy trust (MAT), a medium MAT or large MAT covering a wider geographical area, there are basic principles to follow. It should clarify decision making and lines of accountability in a simple, succinct and clear format and as such each model includes:

- A structure diagram which shows the layers of governance and reporting structures
- A short paragraph of text which outlines the structure
- Details on roles and responsibilities
- A grid format, with columns for each layer of governance which enables stakeholders to quickly determine who has the power to take which decisions within the trust. The grid is in four key areas to reflect both the governance framework and the three core functions of the governing board:

- 1. The governance framework:
 - a. People
 - b. Systems and structures
 - c. Reporting
- 2. Being strategic
- 3. Holding to account
- 4. Ensuring financial probity

You will note that the SoD does not use overly complicated legal terminology. Instead it is intended to be working documents that the trust board and executive leaders should be able to revise and adapt in response to their context and circumstances.

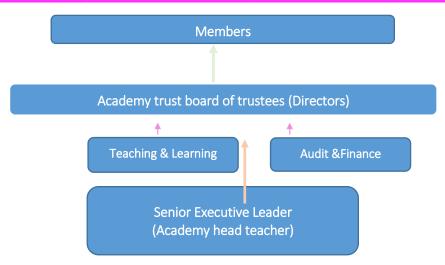

Review and adapt

The SoD should be reviewed annually, with revisions made as the context changes, if necessary each year. This is not a failure, but recognition of the need to be responsive to changing circumstances and to adapt accordingly. It is, however, important to ensure that all involved in governance are made aware of any changes and what these mean in practice.

An effective scheme will:

- Ensure the school leadership is clear about which decisions the trust board remain in control of
- Ensure that the role of the head teacher is fully understood
- Promote a culture of honesty and accountability
- Identify responsibility for the appointment and performance management of the head teacher
- Identify responsibility for policy and practice in the academy
- Identify responsibility for oversight of the academy's budget
- Identify responsibility for assessment of risk in the academy
- Identify responsibility for oversight of educational performance in the academy

Federation of Abbey School Academy Trust Structure:

Governance structure and lines of accountability

The academy trust board delegate responsibility for the day to day running of the academy to the head teacher. The board will hold the head teacher to account for the performance of the academy. The head teacher in turn holds other members of the senior leadership team to account by line managing them. While the board cannot ever delegate its accountability, it can delegate some of the detailed scrutiny, oversight and decision making.

The head teacher will report to the board on the performance of the academy, although this will be supplemented by the monitoring of trust board sub- committees and individual trustees (Directors) with any delegated responsibilities.

The head teacher is performance managed by the trust board.

Roles and responsibilities

The role of the Members

The Members of the trust have a different status to trustees (Directors). Originally they will have been the signatories to the memorandum of association and will have agreed the trust's first articles of association (a document which outlines the governance structure and how the trust will operate). The articles of association will also describe how Members are recruited and replaced, and how many of the trustees (Directors) the Members can appoint to the trust board. The Members appoint trustees (Directors) to ensure that the trust's charitable object is carried out and so must be able to remove trustees if they fail to fulfil this responsibility. Accordingly, the trust board submits an annual report on the performance of the trust to the Members. Members are also responsible for approving any amendments made to the trust's articles of association.

While Members are permitted to be appointed as trustees (Directors), in order to retain a significant degree of separation of powers between the Members and the trust board, and in line with the DfE's strong preference the majority of Members should be independent of the board of trustees. The DfE has amended the model articles to state that Members are not permitted to be employees of the academy trust.

The role of the trustees (Directors)

The academy trust is a charitable company and so trustees are both charity trustees (within the terms of section 177(1) of the Charities Act 2011) and company directors. Because trustees are bound by both charity and company law, the terms 'trustees' and 'directors' are often used interchangeably.

The trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the trust, and in accordance with the provisions set out in the memorandum and articles of association and its funding agreement, it is legally responsible and accountable for all statutory functions, for the performance of the trust, and must approve a written scheme of delegation of financial powers that maintains robust internal control arrangements. In addition it must carry out the three core governance functions:

- 1. Ensure clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction
- 2. Hold the executive to account for the educational performance of the trust and their pupils, and the performance management of staff
- 3. Oversee the financial performance of the trust and make sure its money is well spent

The board of trustees has the right to review and adapt its governance structure at any time which includes removing delegation.

The role of sub - committees

The trustees may establish committees to carry out some of its governance functions which may include making decisions, although any decisions made will be deemed decisions of the trust board. The membership (there must be at least three trustees) and responsibilities of sub- committees are set out in their terms of reference. It is usual for the trust board to appoint board committee chairs and committee members according to their skills.

The Academies Financial Handbook makes it clear that the trust must establish an audit committee or combine it with another committee, appointed by the Board. The Federation of Abbey School's is a combined Audit & Finance Committee.

The role of the senior executive leader (Head Teacher)

The head teacher has the delegated responsibility for the operation of the trust.

The head teacher is the accounting officer so has overall responsibility for the operation of the academy trust's financial responsibilities and must ensure that the organisation is run with financial effectiveness and stability; avoiding waste and securing value for money.

The head teacher leads the senior leadership team (SLT) of the academy trust. The head teacher will delegate management functions to the SLT and is accountable to the trust board for the performance of the SLT.
